Oakwood College
Huntsville, Alabama

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ!

What a tremendous time to be alive--and to be young!. In the most challenging days in this world's history you have been called of God to help in various ways to prepare a people to meet Jesus.

I believe our time is short. What we do we must do quickly. There is no time for delay. I know that both God and your church can depend on you to do your part prayerfully and faithfully.

"Let no man despise thy youth!" Be an active leader in witnessing for the One who loves you and died for you! Make 1974 the greatest year of your life.

May the Lord richly bless each one of you.

Cordially yours,

Robert H. Pierson

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

November 20,1974

Dear Students:

While the contents of these pages are intended to recall the highlights of the past school year, no photograph, no prose, however elegant, can capture the full warmth and joys of the Oakwood experience; for Oakwood has always meant not only quality education but also a distinct life style unduplicated and unparalleled anywhere in the world.

The most special part of the Oakwood community is, of course, its student body. Therefore, it is my earnest hope that all students past can view these pages nostalgically, that all students present can view them proudly and that all future students will sense herein an invitation to become a part of the rich and happy Oakwood tradition.

Very sincerely,

C.B. Rock
President

WEEK OF PRAYER ENHANCES STUDENTS SPIRITUAL GROWTH

God used the Holy Spirit and Elder Earl Canson to bring about the rededication of many students' lives during the Fall Week of Prayer. Elder Canson delivered enlightening messages each evening, emphasizing that our relationship with God is a personal thing and calls for a special dedication on our part. Many students participated in the services by singing or giving their personal testimonies.

Our prayers are with Elder Canson as he returns to his ministry at the Normandie Avenue Seventh–day Adventist Church, Los Angeles, California.

THE FLAGBALL CHAMPS

Emotions ran high, trousers were torn, and cuts, bruises, and abrasions bountiful as a rough tough flag football season got into full swing. Even though there was tough competition and close scores, W. McKeever looked like a winner from the very beginning. James Cox led his team to six victories.

The outstanding players for the Champs were S. Foster and C. Dossman.

Another 10 yards, and another first down by Danny Jones.

BLOOD DRIVE

The process may be a bit slow, and a little painful, but a smile is the price tag.

OAKWOOD STUDENTS RECEIVE AWARD FOR THEIR BLOOD

Claude Thomas, Jr., Dean of Students at Oakwood College, presented a plaque to the student body on Wednesday, January 9, during the chapel assembly in Ashby Auditorium. The plaque was recently awarded to Oakwood College by the Birmingham regional and Huntsville chapters of the American Red Cross for student participation in the school's first blood drive, back on October 11. That first drive raised 255 units, or 63 ¾ gallons of blood from a first-quarter enrollmant of 987. Another drive is scheduled for April 22, in the Blake Center.

A needle point has opened the door of life to a needy soul.

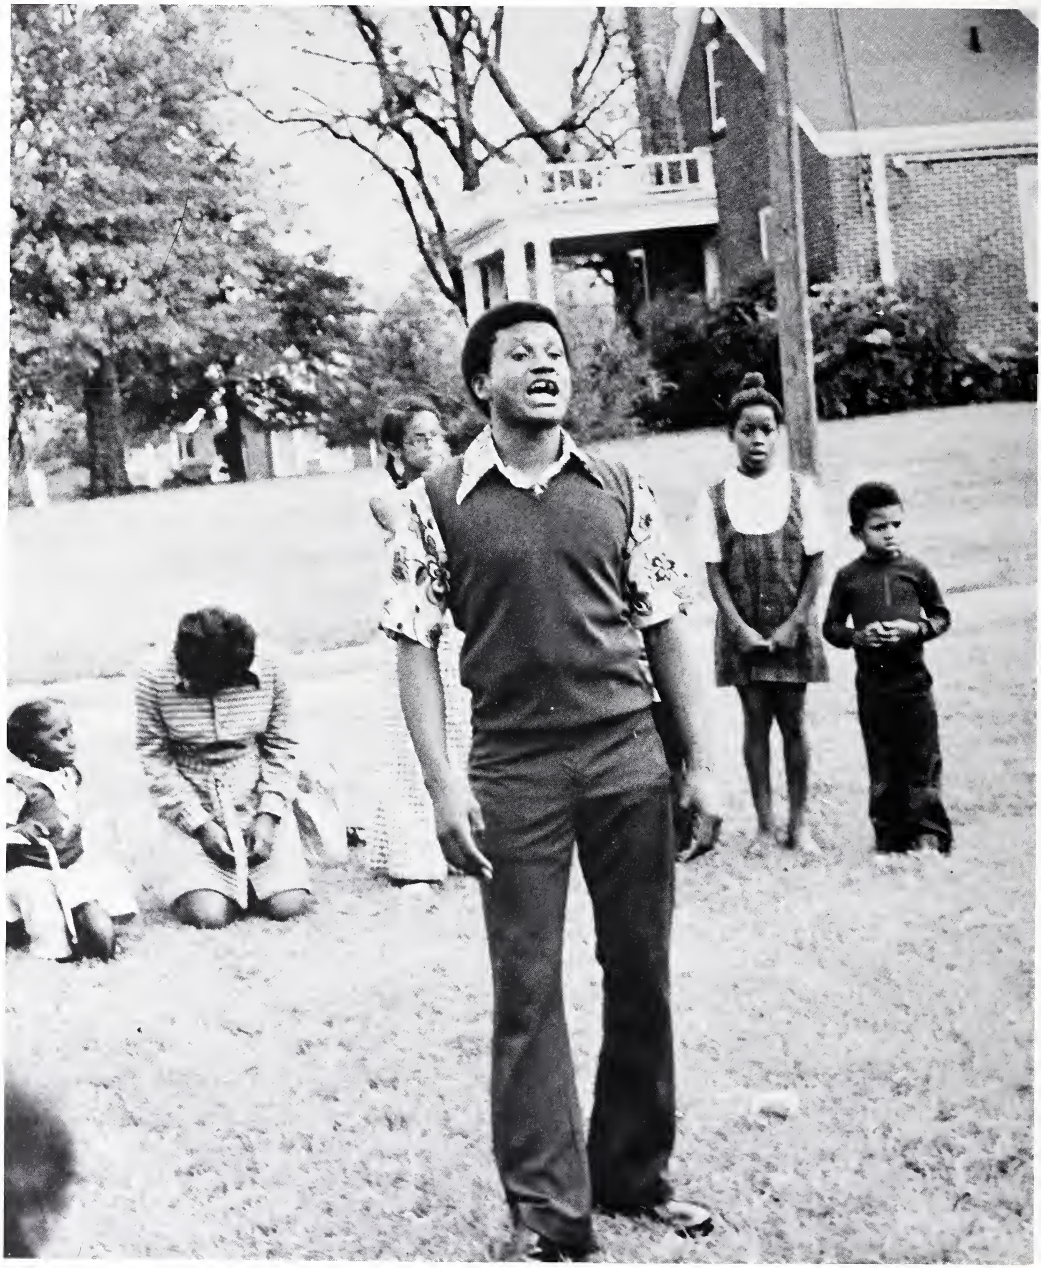
OPERATION OUTREACH



Let everyone that has breath praise the Lord.

Let the little ones come unto Him ... turn them not away!

"SINGSPIRATION"

We lift every voice and sing during the hours of the Sabbath.

We are happy because, "His banner over us is love"

Hand in hand, heart to heart, and "Side by Side", are joys of reunion.

From evening to evening we praise Him with sweet sounding music.

WASHINGTON

SWEETHEART PAGEANT

On February 24, Love and Charm graced the Big Oak Dining Room as eighteen of Oakwood's loveliest flowers vied for the title of "Sweetheart '74". The atmosphere was festive as emcees Debbie Holland and Linton Coke steered us through the evening. The audience feasted on talent, beauty, elegance, style, and good food as they awaited the Sweetheart Coronation. Down home soul was brought back as the winner Linda Ammons gave a presentation depicting true 'Blackness'. As she concluded, there was no doubt; she was the greatest.

LOVE CHARM

Thou whom God hath endowed with charm that ever charmeth me;
How canst thou have both the charm and an ear deaf to my plea?
Must I go on and on a slave, and thus enchanted be.
While thous, Enchantess art left to roam love's whole range so free?
Must my dumb heart be staked like an animal left to graze,
While like the sailing kite, I'm towed by thy magnetic gaze?
I can't go on and on as doped by a sure narcotic
And be without not a care to you, a "love-sick" neurotic!
Thou whom God hath endowed with charm that ever charmeth me;
How canst thou have both the charm and an ear deaf to my plea?
E'en tho my heart must flee that it may know no greater harm,
It still can but fret the sweetness of you. Bitter Love Charm!

TACKY DAY

MOCK FUNERAL

The Oakwood College NAACP performed a one act play in their presentation of a Mock Funeral. All were dressed in black. The processional was composed of a few members of the Membership Committee. The Eulogy was given by the NAACP President. She in her speech, reminded the student body that the fight for freedom is still on and will be until the Lord returns and brings peace. After the Eulogy, the casket was opened and the members threw in the four basic trouble-makers in our society: Pride, Jealousy, Sin, and Satan.

NAACP

MARGO BARNETT

Margo Barnett: Dramatic interpreter of black poetry—established a variation of the moods that create black culture. Our emotions and senses were stretched to new heights as she illustrated that "Black is a Beautiful Woman." And we concluded our Lyceum Series with a burning pride realizing that indeed, Black is a Beautiful Culture!

LYCEUM

Culture reflects the productivity of a people in relation to fine arts, humanities and science. It is universally acknowledged that all of mankind has some talent to give, and we at Oakwood can attest to that fact in a special way, as our heritage indicates an overflowing richness in culture. The 1973-74 Lyceum Series drew from this heritage a spectrum of talent which touched on many levels of the black experience.

ALEX HALEY

Alex Haley, noted author, revealed to us his intimate association with, and the forces that motivated Malcolm X. But most importantly, he presented to us the thrilling, factual account of the black heritage as our "Roots" were boldly and brilliantly exposed.

GYMNASTIC TEAM

THE OLYMPIANS

The main intent of the Oakwood College Olympians is to promote physical existence in the Christian institution. The name Olympians, as you may have already surmised, was inspired by the world Famous Olympic Games. Gymnastics are one of the fast-paced sports. It requires expert timing, rhythm, strength, flexibility, and most of all, originality. The Olympians strive for perfection in each feat that they attempt, whether a full twisting, front lay out, a front drop on the trampoline, or a simple stag leap on the balance beam. The instructor is Daniel Winslow. The P.E. Department is under the leadership of Coach J. Roddy and Mrs. L. Montgomery, who have been helpful in making many arrangements to assist the team. The Olympians were organized in November of 1973.

COMMENCEMENT

GRADUATION DAY

The eighty-fourth graduation exercise for 109 seniors of Oakwood College was held on the last weekend of May 1974, featuring three traditional commencement programs in Ashby Auditorium. The weekend program began at 8 p.m. Friday with the Consecration service. The speaker was E.J. Humphrey, pastor of the Ephesus Seventh-day Adventist Church in New York City.

Weekly Worship services of the Oakwood College Church were combined with the Baccalaureate at 11:00 a.m. Saturday. In charge of the service was E.C. Ward, pastor of the College Church. The speaker was H.S. Walters, president of the West Indies Union of Seventh-day Adventists.

The final graduation event was on Sunday morning at 10 a.m. when the commencement speaker was Dr. Prezell R. Robinson, president of St. Augustine College, Raleigh, North Carolina. Degrees were conferred by C.B. Rock, President and Mrs. Wilma Foster, Registrar.

Ahead of you lies the road of your journeys—mysterious, challenging, and perhaps a bit frightening.

When you come to a fork in your road, let the spirit of God, the good moral principles and wisdom that you have developed hear at Oakwood College, be your guide.

At the end of your road you will find an unreachable star—everyone has one; but always remember that your unreachable star is only as far as your most earnest attempt to grasp it.

MAGNIFICENT GIFT OF TIME

Many a time I have been stricken to the earth,
but the earth is full of strength which I
take to my heart;

I have been defeated again and again, but there is something within me which is never defeated.

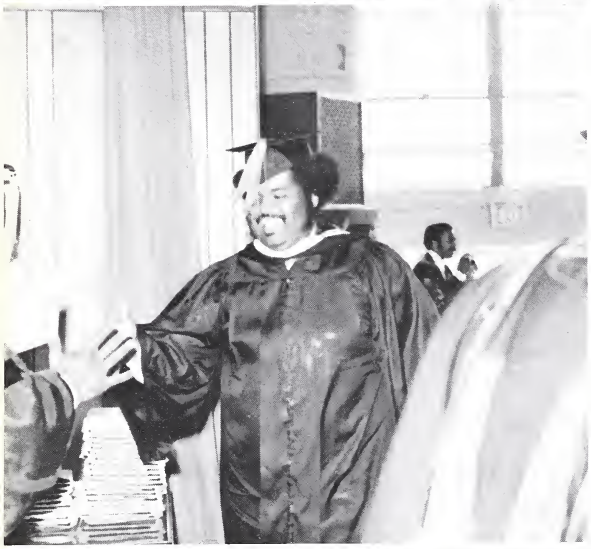
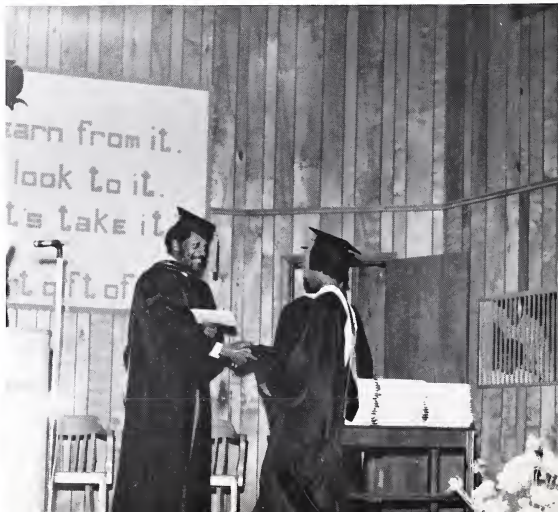
For I am full of New Beginnings.

—Don Marquis

Kerri Lawrence, Music Coordinator Directs Seniors in the Class Song.





The largest graduating senior class to date showed their deepest gratitude and appreciation to Oakwood College by presenting the future Oakwood College Church building with a beautiful, traditional, and official Seventh-day Adventist Church sign, to be placed at a strategic point so it will be the first object seen by members and passerbys as one enters the new road that will lead from Sparkman, to the new church home. The sign is approximately 13 feet high and 8 feet long. It will be lighted 24 hours a day.

The sign was presented to the Oakwood Church on Sunday, June 2, at the graduation services, by Charles Battles, president of the graduating class of 1974. Pastor E.C. Ward of the Oakwood College Church accepted this grand gift in a gracious manner, on behalf of the church members.

GREETINGS!

At long last, I am very happy to present to you the 1973-74 edition of the Oakwood College ACORN. As many of you know, I was originally the yearbook photographer, but as you see, I, as a result of some complications, was entrusted with the editorship. The job was new, my staff was small, but we worked hard to get this edition of the ACORN finished with your best interest in mind.

In the production of this yearbook, I must give recognition to David Trusty and the USM Senate, Dean Claude Thomas, Jr., Dr. Irene Wakeham, Mr. Harold Lee, Lizbeth Thorpe, Deborah Holmes, Deborah Young, the entire student body and especially to Tom Bentley of Paragon Yearbooks whose assistance was beyond the call of duty.

We realize that the 1973-74 ACORN is late. For your patience we are truly grateful. I have thoroughly enjoyed working with the ACORN, and I hope you will be pleased with this picture-packed edition. The moments of nostalgia I experienced while putting it all together were numerous.

It is my sincere desire that you will also share that experience as you turn the pages with me and remember when . . .

THOSE WERE THE DAYS WE THOUGHT WILL NEVER END

ALMA MATER

Our dear Oakwood, within whose vale
Thy standards will not fail.
Our hearts are filled with wondrous cheer
When thoughts of thee draw near.
We love thy pines, thy elms, thy oaks,
And campus always green;
Thy many flowers and distant mounts
Forms one impressive scene.

Chorus
To thee, our dear Oakwood,
To thee we shall ever sing.
For decades thou hast stood,
Thy name should ever ring.
Here we've spent our happy days,
And we love to sing thy praise,
And wherever we may be,
We'll always be true to thee,
Our worthy, dear old O.C.

O.B. Edwards

DO YOU REMEMBER . . .

Those hours you spent in the cafe?

Those Sabbath Services?

Black History Week?

REMEMBER NOW THY CREATOR IN THE DAYS OF THY YOUTH
